FIG. 3b

FIG. 4 is a schematic diagram of a multi-layered structure. The top layer (50) features a central opening (52) and side openings (54, 56). A middle layer (60) contains a grid of vertical lines (70, 72, 74, 76). A bottom layer (64) is shown with dashed lines (66, 68). Arrows indicate flow or direction.

FIG. 10 is a cross-sectional view of a circular structure 80. The structure 80 has a central region 82, which is filled with vertical lines, indicating a specific material or internal structure. The outer boundary of the structure 80 is shown with a hatched pattern.
